Each book consists of ten pages of New Music, which has not and will not be published in Sheet Music form, yet the price is only 50 cents.

The Pieces and Exercises are the most melodious ever published in any instruction book or set of studies for these instruments, and are arranged in duet form, some of the second parts being nearly as pleasing as the melody itself.

Very comprehensive diagrams of the complete fingerboards are one of the features of these books.

Jacobs' Combination Tuning Chart for Mandolin, Banjo and Guitar is another.

The Studies are carefully fingered for both hands, well graded, and the count marked for every piece and exercise.

Each book contains two pages of Amusements and Exercises which are especially adapted to the one particular instrument. Therefore these Studies are thoroughly practical for private teaching, as well as being unequalled by any others for class work.

The title page is an exceedingly attractive one and printed in two colors.

TEACHERS: BOOK I will convince you of the value of these Studies. Don't be the last to try them.

The author of this work is the talented composer of the famous Luella Waltz, Koonville Koonlets Cakewalk, Northern Lights Overture, and many other equally meritorious and popular compositions. He needs no introduction to those already familiar with the names of the best American composers of Mandolin, Banjo and Guitar
